

ROTARIAN

George R. Hensel

George, the founder of California Driving School, was an exemplary Rotarian with a 45-year record of perfect attendance. A real model of the Horatio Alger myth, going from sleeping on park benches during the Depression, through the Merchant Marines, to a Ph.D. in business and an impressive record of philanthropy giving millions of dollars to the community and Rotary. His legacy continues through the Rotary's George Hensel Ethics Essay Contest.

 IMAGINE ROTARY

For All High School Students in RI District 5300

This contest promotes the importance of ethics among today's youth and encourages them to express their views. We hope that each student will consult with their parents and teachers for this essay in an effort to build communication between young people and adults regarding ethics. We also wish to enhance Rotary's presence in schools and in the community.

1. Select Club member to chair contest.
2. Contact local high school counselors to promote student participation in the contest.
3. Ask that the essay become a class project and submit essays to the Club for local judging.
4. Schedule a program in which the winner and runners'-up of your local contest are recognized. Your Club can award scholarships to the Club winner and runners'-up with club funds in addition to the district prize.
5. Submit the winning Club essay to the District Chair for District-level judging at districtessaycontest@mtbrotary.org
